

A stylized, painterly map of Palma, Mallorca, in shades of purple, blue, and yellow. The map shows a dense network of streets and buildings. A semi-transparent white rectangle is overlaid on the upper half of the map, containing the text 'SCAVENGER HUNT' and 'PALMA'. Below the text is a solid teal horizontal bar. The bottom of the map shows a yellow area representing a beach or park, with a blue body of water at the very bottom.

SCAVENGER HUNT

PALMA

6: THE WICKED COUNT

In this house lived the Comte Mal - that means wicked Count. The Count was in love with a girl who was a nun in the convent of Santa Clara and did not like him. With the help of the devil, the Count is said to have built his house bigger than all the others and created secret passages to the convent to see the girl.

When the girl became very ill, the Count sneaked into the convent and kissed her secretly. She cringed and cursed him. When the Count died years later, his body disappeared in green smoke.

Since then, he is said to haunt the mountains near Galatzo on his black horse.

QUESTION:

What is the name of the street to the left around the house of the evil count?

ANSWER:

- ☐ Carrer d'En Morei
- ☐ Carrer de Can Formiguera
- ☐ Carrer de Colom

LET'S MOVE ON!

Walk around the house of the evil count, on the street whose name you found out. All this belonged to him. Do you see the little bridge that connects two houses across the street? That's where you have to go next.

You're here

Baths

7: THE ARAB BATHS

Bany's Arabs, the Arab Baths – well, actually it's just one. This is the only building in Mallorca that has survived from the Arab period. All the others were destroyed by the Christian kings. But you can find many other traces left by the Arabs. Many street names, place names and the Majorcan language contain words from Arabic.

In the past, people used to wash themselves much less often. They did not have showers at home either, but went to public baths. On the one hand, to stop stinking. But on the other hand also to do business there and to hear news.

QUESTION:

How many columns are on the tile picture on the wall?

ANSWER: